

PROGRAM SPONSORS

St. Augustine Dance Conservatory & The Perla Ballet

*We would love to highlight you or your organization!
Thank you for considering a program sponsorship*

The Perla Ballet, together with its host St. Augustine Dance Conservatory, have a shared vision of facilitating the growth of individuality and artistry in youth. We work to be a source of high-quality dance productions and dance education where students and their families come first - where children and young people can come to learn the art of dance and to be inspired - by the enjoyable and disciplined nature of dance education - to pursue whatever dreams they may have.

The Perla Ballet and St. Augustine Dance Conservatory desires to reach as many members in our community and beyond with our year-round programs and performances, whether actively participating or viewing as an audience member.

We would be very grateful to receive your support by ordering an ad in our performance programs. These are handed out to the audience at each of our shows and we always direct the patrons attention to the contents.

THANK YOU for your consideration and please check out our Annual Season Sponsorship options as well!
